Mothers' Day And the Beginning of Boys' Week Is Made Theme of Sermon And Song At All of the Churches

"BOYS' DAY IN SCHOOLS"

Local Orators Selected to Make Addresses At the Different Structures, the Same to Deal With Loyalty, Importance of School Attendance

Weather conditions yesterday were not compatible with large church attendances, but the fact that it was Mothers' day, and the further fact it was the beginning of Boys' Week, collaborations which were appealing, brought large crowds to the various edifices. During the forenoon there was more or less drizzle, while in the evening Jupiter Pluvius "got in his work proper."

Special sermons and music featured at all the churches, and the mothers and boys were eulogized. In some of the churches the boys acted as ushers, while the floral decorations were beautiful and of a diversified character.

This week is Boys' Week in the borough, sponsored by the Charleroi Rotary club, Dr. Edwin McKay is chairman, and the committees which he appointed are working zealously with him to make the week the success the present prospects augur. Today is "Boys' Day in the Schools." Speakers have been selected and will make addresses at 3 o'clock as follows: Fifth street, Postmaster S. D. R. Hill; Ninth street, Tom P. Sloan; Second street, Burgess J. Bryant Tussing; Crest Avenue, Scoutmaster Hiram S. Hall; Junior and Senior High schools, John D. Berryman.

The addresses are to deal with loyalty, the importance of staying in school, good citizenship, and health.

Tuesday, from 4 to 6 p. m., the various offices of the borough will be filled by school boys, as announced in Saturday's Mail. During this period they will run the town, delegate officers to make arrests, if anyone get gay, and in general look after the affairs of the borough. Tours of the industrial plants will be one of the features of the day, and all boys are invited to make "the trip."

RESULT OF THE CARMEN'S VOTE MEANS MUCH

Pittsburgh, May 12.—Pittsburgh's striking conductors and motormen were voting this afternoon on the proposition of ending the street car strike.

Pending the outcome on the balloting, officials of the Pittsburgh Railways company announced that the imported strike breakers would not be used to operate the cars.

Indications were that the strike may end tonight if the affirmative is recorded.

The proposition on which the employes voted provided that the present wage scale and working conditions shall continue for two years.

The decision on the vote as to whether the strike shall be called off and the determination of the proposal to be presented to the men for their vote was read shortly before 3 a. m. today at a conference between Mayor Magee, labor mediators, representatives of the street car company and representatives of the men.

It is reported that the company has already accepted the agreement and is waiting the approval of the street car men.

Union, By Vote, Agree On A Settlement

The Pittsburgh street car men's strike ended at 3 o'clock this afternoon by a vote of 1073 to 920. The striking conductors and motormen voted to return to work at once.

53 Charleroi votes were not included in the voting, they not having been received, but this will not effect a change in the situation. The men consented to return to work at a wage scale of 67 cents per hour which will continue for a term of two years.

There will be no change in working conditions. The company agreed to pay one-half the cost of one uniform for each employe each year. Arrangements were made to resume the trolley service at once. Employes of the car barns went to their posts as soon as the word was announced and in all probability cars will reach Charleroi some time this evening.

Pittsburgh, May 12. — The wage scale committee of Pittsburgh's 3,200 striking motormen and conductors will vote at noon today on an arbitration proposition to end the street car strike which has been in effect here since midnight Friday.

Pending the result of the ballot no trolleys will be operated by the strike-breakers imported here, it was announced by officials of the Pittsburgh Railways Company.

The wage increase sought by the carmen's union will be the main issue arbitrated. It is understood now that the union will agree to arbitrate on a maximum three cents an hour increase. The top pay of platform men before the strike was 67 cents an hour.

Meanwhile Pittsburghers today continued to get to their places of work by walking and riding in conveyances of all descriptions.

Thousands inconvenienced by the tie up of trolley service were drenched by rain.

The general public was optimistic today in their hope that the strike would end. Crowds of workers, in trucks operated free by their places of employment, bantered one another, "Gues we'll be paying carfare again tomorrow."

Sunday was "Stay at Home" day in Pittsburgh. Because the strike and rain the downtown section of the city was almost deserted.

HOMING CLUB OPENS ITS 1924 BIRD SEASON

The Charleroi Homing club opened its 1924 flying season from Coshocton, O., on Sunday, May 3. The birds made very good time—almost a mile a minute. The distance was 104 miles, and the birds averaged 1481 yards a minute, being liberated at 6 a. m., and home at 8:10 a. m. Mayflower from the loft of Pete Bayers was first home, and Reservoir Green, from the same loft, was second. [illegible] 1357.72; Paragrama, 1352.25; Arrigo, 1338.80; Vegro, 1218.39; McGuire, 1149.60; Speilman, 1120.09; Michaux, 113.45.

The club flew from the same place on Sunday, May 11, and the birds had a late liberation on account of the baggage car being delayed at Steubenville, O. The birds had a very bad day, forcing their way through the rain from start to finish. Moon Eye, from the loft of Pete Bayens, was the first bird home, followed closely by Ninea-Ninea from the loft of Alex Paragona. These were the only two birds home. CHIEF BLACKHANDER WAS MURDERED

James Pizzarelli, Who Disclosed Secrets At Daniele-Fragrassa Trial, Is Slain At His Home In Indiana, Pa., On Saturday

Confessed He Had Joined Black Hand Society In Italy, Pizzarelli Minutely And Graphically Described Methods Employed By Dread Organization

Fifteen days after he had been released from the Western Penitentiary on parole as a reward for testimony he gave in court, which was largely responsible for the conviction and execution of Marcantonio, Daniele and Antonio Fragassa, of Canonsburg, members of the Black Hand society, James Pizzarelli, aged 45, was murdered at his home in Indiana Pa., on Saturday night.

Sheriff John Malcolm, of Indiana county, and Chief of Police G. L. O'Connell, of Indiana, were in Washington this morning in an effort to secure facts which might furnish clews as to the slayer or slayers of Pizzarelli.

Convinced, though they have no facts to substantiate their firm belief, that Pizzarelli was slain by order of the Black Hand society to avenge the deaths of Daniele and Fragassa, who were convicted of slaying Gabriele Fiore at Canonsburg about two years ago, the Indiana county officials thought this the most likely place to find some facts that might lead to a solution of the crime.

It was learned through questioning of Alphonse Palifrone, who also testified as to the Black Hand activities of Daniele and Fragassa, that Pizzarelli expected to move from Indiana where he had been living since his release from the penitentiary, to Canonsburg, where Palifrone is now residing.

FAMOUS PIKE THROWN OPEN TODAY

The Monongahela pike is now open for through traffic again. The temporary [illegible] Eighty-Four, to take the place of the steel girder bridge wrecked a week ago by a roller going through it, was completed Thursday, and the road again thrown open. During the time the road was closed the auto-bus from Monongahela to Washington transferred its passengers at that point. Auto traffic had to go over the National pike to Beallsville to Bentleyville, and down the Pigeon creek valley to reach Monongahela, a much longer distance.

Burgess John Howard Injured By Being Knocked From Truck

Burgess John Howard of Dunlevy is a patient in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital suffering from injuries received about the head when he was knocked from the running board of a Ford car yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, alleged at the hands of Harry E. Barton, driver of the car. The hospital authorities this forenoon pronounced Howard's injuries as not serious.

Barton, accompanied by his father, Herbert Barton, residing at Eclipse Mine, near Coal Centre, was in Dunlevy on business yesterday. They had parked their car on the highway, contrary to law. When the Bartons returned to the car, Burgess Howard jumped on the running board and directed the driver to go to the Borough building in order that he might effect their arrest for violation of the parking ordinance. It was while on the way to the Borough building that the driver, Harry Barton is alleged to have knocked the Burgess from the car, Mr. Howard's head coming in contact with the concrete pavement. endered unconscious, after first aid administrations, Burgess Howard was taken to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital.

The Bartons were placed under arrest by Constable William Ray of Elco, and are being held at the Charleroi police station pending such time as Burgess Howard is able to appear against them.

Officer Kingsley, of the Lilly Coal company, arrested Edward Haywood, colored. Haywood was incarcerated in the Charleroi lockup, and will have a hearing before Squire J. B. Smith, charged with carrying concealed weapons.

MOTHERS AND BOYS HONORED

Yesterday mothers were honored and boys were given a prominent place in the services at the M. E. church.

In the morning a very large congregation assembled. Boys, a considerable number in Scout uniforms, assisted in the service. They greeted people in the vestibules, ushered, and took the offering.

In the evening the boys greeted the people, ushered, took the offering read the Scripture lesson and announced the hymns.

The pastor used as his text both morning and evening, Isaiah 66:13. "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you." In the morning he spoke of the superlative place, the superlative power, and the superlative responsibility given the mother, his theme being, "The Mother and Her Boys."

In the evening the pastor spoke of the return which the high service of the mother for her boys demanded, citing as elements of this return, reciprocating her love, fulfilling her high hopes, accepting her standard of life and service, and making glad the mother's heart by seeking a high goal. The theme of the evening was, "The Boys and Their Mothers."

Rev. Mr. Duty was present and assisted in the service.

A special offering was received for the Hamilton Home for the Aged.

Monongahela Valley Chapter D. A. R. Elects Officers At Chapter Meeting

The May meeting of the Monongahela Valley Chapter, D. A. R. proved an interesting and enthusiastic one with 75 members of the valley present at the ho moef Misses Sarah and Etta Lilley of California, held Saturday afternoon. The interior of the Lilly home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers prevailing throughout. Election of officers took place d uring the business session and those honored were as follows:

Regent, Miss Margaret Laird, Charleroi; first vice regent, Mrs. Campbell Herron, Monongahela; recording secretary, Miss Clara Cooper, Charleroi; corresponding secretary, Miss Olive Taylor, Charleroi; treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Repman, Charleroi; registrar, Mrs. J. K. Smith, Charleroi. A lengthy, detailed report on the Continental Congress which was held in the national capital the week of April 14, was given by Miss Clara G. Cooper who with Miss Jeannette Wilson of Monessen, attended this great annual convention. A delightful musical program furnished the entertainment and a very elaborate and delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses. The last meeting of the year will be the annual Flag Day outing on June 14, which will be held at the Nemacolin Country club.

SHENANDOAH VALLEY GETTING THE BIGGEST FLOOD SINCE 1870

Harrison, Virginia, May 12—The greatest flood since 1870, the year of the big flood, is plunging down the Shenandoah valley to the gate-way of Harpers Ferry today.

A 30-hour rain storm which at times assumed the proportions of a cloudburst in the upper valley region and around Stanton, Harrison and Waynesboro headwaters of the Shenandoah river, had shed a deluge of water into two branches of otherwise peaceful rivers. Between Harrison and Staunton the creeks have been converted into mighty lakes.

SALE OF SEATS FOR THE BOY SCOUTS

Michael Rosenbloom of the Maestjic theatre has turned over the sale of seats for the show, "Boy of Mine," which will be presented at the theatre today and tomorrow, and "The Virginian," on Wednesday and Thursday, to the Boy Scouts of Charleroi. Every ticket sold by Scouts for this play will mean more money for the troop. The money for the tickets sold at the box office will be turned over to the management to defray the expenses, but every ticket sold outside the theatre, will be for the benefit of the Scouts.

The pleasing recollections of this day's services for mothers and boys inspires the wish that other days of a kindred nature may have a place in the church calendar of the year.

ONE DEAD, AND ONE INJURED IN STILL EXPLOSION

Wilkes-Barre, May 12.—Five-year-old Olga Lukushak is dead today and her 13-year-old sister, Mary, is in a critical condition at the Nanticoke State hospital as the result of the explosion of a 30-gallon moonshine still at their home in Askem, near here, according to the police.

Mrs. Mary Lukushak, mother of the girls, and Mrs. A. J. Komoso, a neighbor, who risked her life to rescue the two girls from the flames, were painfully burned. Police are looking for a boarder who is said to have been operating a still when it became overheated and exploded with a roar heard for a mile, spilling flaming alcohol over the house and its occupants.

Charleroi Wins Second Honors In Field Meet

Washington High School had little trouble winning the County Track and Field Meet held at Washington Saturday afternoon. The first class high schools competing consisted of Washington, Charleroi and Canonsburg.

Washington led by their two colored stars Gordon and Baker ran up forty points in the first five events on the program. Their total was 95 points.

Charleroi and Canonsburg fought it out for second place Charleroi winning 54 points to 40 for Canonsburg. Shanghency was the individual star for the Canonsburg team scoring 16 points.

Charleroi scored well in the distance events Bly, Torbert and Buckholdt all counting. Ritzer running for the first time in the mile run finished fifth. Wagner ran a nice quarter mile race winning first place. He also placed in the 220 yd. dash.

"Boots" Hill won the broad jump with ease. Crytzer, Crabb, Morgan and Anthony accounted for the remaining points won by Charleroi in the field events. Our relay team finished second to Washington H. S.

Priest's Address Impressive In Leaving Charge

Rev. Father Carl A. Demorest, assistant pastor of St. Jerome's Roman Catholic church, who is leaving Thursday, May 15, for Sacred Heart church East End, Pittsburgh, where he has been assigned as assistant pastor to Rev. Thomas Coakley, by the Right Rev. Bishop Hugh C. Boyle, delivered his farewell sermon yesterday morning to his congregation.

The departing priest's address was a most impressive one, condensed and to the point, in which he heartily thanked all his friends, catholic and non-catholic, and members of St. Jerome's congregation, for any acts of kindness shown toward him. He said his stay in Charleroi, while not a long one, was one he will remember with nothing but the most pleasant memories, and will look back upon [illegible] happiest in his life.

Although the members of the local parish are greatly overjoyed to hear of Father Demorest's advancement, it is with the deepest sorrow and regret that they, together with all those who were fortunate enough to be classed among his friends, see him go forth into a new field of work.

Sacred Heart church is one of the largest parishes in the Pittsburgh diocese and this move of Father Demorest's is a big and responsible one. Father Demorest, however, is capable and efficient enough to meet the added [illegible] success and happiness in this big undertaking.

Rev. James McKeever, who has been assistant pastor at Sacred Heart church, will come to the local parish Thursday, and fill the vacancy made by the removal of Father Demorest.

HEALTH AND WALKING.

In this age of the ubiquitous automobile it is good to be reminded of nature's original intention that the human as well as the lower animals should make daily use of their legs. The latest reminder of an efernal truth comes in the form of a book "Walking for Health," written by Dr. Alvah H. Doty, former health officer of the port of New York. When Stevenson, Treyelyan and Hazlitt wrote about long walks through the country they were chiefly concerned with the charm of vagabonding, the poetry of the out-of-doors, and the pleasures of reflection amid the beauties of sylvan scene, but Dr. Doty's aim is altogether practical. He calls attention to the lamentable decline of walking—which he pronounces more useful than any other method of stretching the muscles and expanding the lungs in the open air. Walking is the way to a good heart, he tells us; no other outdoor recreation can do so much for the vascular system; if you would keep off arterio-schlerosis, keep on walking.

His warning is addressed not only to the sedentary, but to the motor-maniacs who have became weak in their legs because they make their cars carry them even when business or pleasure calls them less than two blocks away. So far has this practice gone that there are now persons, particularly of the social climbing class, who would as soon be caught carrying a parcel as be seen traversing the very shortest distance on foot. Wherefore there is much putting on of fat and the hastening of many diseases. Of course the automobile is essential in the pursuit of both business and pleasure, but the wise man will employ it temperately, not only covering short distances on foot every day but remembering the need of long walks at more or less regular intervals.

FISHERMEN IN OFFICE.

While the people generally are discussing the recognized need of more honesty and unselfish devotion to the public good among government officials, Secretary Hoover introduces a bit of pleasing diversion by telling the Izaak Walton League of America that more fishermen are needed in office, or more of the typical angler's spirit. In part he said:

"A fisherman must be of contemplative mind, for it is often a long time between bites. These interludes produce patience, reserve and calm reflection—for no one can catch fish in excitement, in eagerness or in malice. He is by nature possessed of faith, hope and even optimism or he would not fish; for we are always going to have better luck in a few minutes or tomorrow."

It is true that the genuine fisherman cultivates an optimistic outlook; true that he accepts bad luck philosophically and remains patient and hopeful, whatever happens. But at the same time he is clear-headed and mindful of the teachings of experience. He is careful in the selection of fishing ground, watchful in his regard for times and seasons, and he is very particular in the choice of his company. Association with crooks is not at all to his taste. Nor does he wish to be crowded even by honest men, having found in his own experience confirmation of the following advice of Izaak Walton himself: "When ye purpose to go on your disportes in fishynge ye will not desyre greatlye many persons with you, which might let you of your game."

PITTSBURGH IS STILL IN SECOND DIVISION IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

What ails the Pirates? This is the exclamation being heard on every hand, for with the team with the personnel of Pittsburgh, it looks out of place to see them in the second division. The trouble seems to be that the members do not coordinate in their hitting. The batting has been weak, taken from an individual and collective standpoint. The pitching and infielding have been up to the standard, but the sluggers of the club have not as yet got their "batting eyes."

It is expected that with settled and warmer weather the Pirates will do better, for they have no business in the second division.

Next week come the chesty New York Giants, the league leaders, and this series will give the fan an idea of the true strength of the Pittsburgh club.

Animals Frozen for Centuries.

The Smithsonian institution says that cadavers, or bodies, of the northern mastodon and the hairy rhinoceros have been found in the ice of Siberia. Wolves, dogs and bears are said to have eaten of the frozen flesh as it thawed out. Small portions of the muscular tissues, skin covered with hair, stomach contents, etc., of one of these frozen specimens of the mammoth are on exhibition in the United States National museum.

Goats and Women.

According to the ancient records of York county, preserved in the courthouse at Alfred, Me., goats and women were not allowed on the isles of Shoals. One fisherman brought his wife there, at the same time importing some goats. Lengthy legal battles were waged concerning the matter. Finally it was settled that the goats must go but the wife could stay.

Mixed Situation.

Dashaway—"You say your sister will be down in a minute, Willie? That's good news. I thought perhaps she wanted to be excused, as she did the other day." Willie—"Not this time. I played a trick on her." Dashaway—"What did you do?" Willie—"I said you were another fellow!"—London Tit-Bits.

Electric Lamps.

The average amount of light obtained for 1 cent from incandescent electric lamps at first was about five-candle power hours, but it is now possible to obtain with the ordinary 40-watt lamp 170-candle power hours for a cent.

In memory of Mrs. Mary Connell, who died one year ago today.

The blow was hard, the shock severe,

We little thought her death so near.

Her pleasant smile for all she met,

Her kind heart we shall ne'er forget.

Hour by hour we saw her fade and slowly pass away.

In our house we prayed that she might longer stay.

With patience she suffered, her troubles were sore;

But now they are ended, she suffers no more.

We have laid her down in the quiet of rest,

The parting was painful, but God knows best.

Sadly missed by husband and children.

MAN IS HELD FOR MURDER

A coroner's jury probing the death of Lonnie McElroy, aged 26, a colored man, of 675 Reed street, Clairton, who was shot to death April 20, when he repulsed an attack on his wife, Saturday, held G. R. Caruso, aged 34, of Bunola, Allegheny county, near Monongahela, for the grand jury on a charge of murder.

It is alleged that Caruso is the man who fired the shot that killed McElroy. He has been confined to the McKesport hospital, suffering from gunshot wounds sustained when he is said to have resisted arrest by the Clairton police. Caruso broke away from the officers in the business section of Clairton, after he had been placed under arrest following the shooting, and when he attempted to take to flight, was shot in the shoulder and through the chest by the pursuing officers.
